Object Number	Summary of enquiry	Response and Exemptions
FOI/2022/0026	This is an information request relating to expenditure by the Science Museum on events and exhibitions related to the 100 year anniversary of the BBC. Please include the following information <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The total budget for the "Broadcast 100" series • A list of all the events and exhibitions planned for the year, including the budget for each • A breakdown of these budgets, including how much will be spent on advertising, staff, exhibits • Any funding the Science Museum expects to receive for this series. Please make it clear where this funding comes from 	Information provided
FOI/2022/0018/001	Internal Review: Reg. Q.9, 10 and 11; Regarding the section 31 exemption, I don't believe a security threat to be valid from the information requested. Much more detailed information would be considered to increase vulnerability I'm sure, such as product serial numbers, usernames and passwords, etc; but I fail to see how disclosing the information I've requested could pose a threat to the cyber security of the organisation. I would like to submit an internal review as I don't believe that this information could pose a threat to the organisation's security and I believe that the exemption has been applied incorrectly.	Upheld s.31

	How does contract dates and annual spend come under this exemption, I'm just trying to understand the seriousness of this exemption as other organisation are providing this information. What procedures does the organisation have in place if a member of staff was to disclose this information? In order to exempt this information you must be able to show how the release of this information could be a detriment to the security of the organisation.
