TITLE QUESTION (E.G. WHAT'S IN A WORD?)

If you decide to take part in this study, you will carry out a simple task to explore why some words sound more like their meaning than others.

You will be asked to take part in some activities which involve associating names to objects. You may be asked to look at images of objects and make up a name for them, listen to some words and draw pictures, or to play a word guessing game.

The researchers will ask to record some personal information such as age and gender, and education. Your data will be stored in compliance with the Data Protection Act 1998. Any personal details recorded will be stored securely at Myuniversity College for a period of XX years and then destroyed. Only authorised researchers will have access to this information.

You can stop the experiment at any time, without having to give a reason, and any information recorded will be kept strictly confidential.

This project has been approved by the Myuniversity College Research Ethics Committee,

Admin building, MyUni Campus, Eduville, ED12 3UC.

The study results will help us understand better how we learn and use words and may be published in scientific journals or presented at scientific conferences. Your name and identity will not be revealed. We can provide a summary and a final report to participants on request.
